Artist Eleanor Tomlinson has created a range bespoke illustrations for Lottie Shaw's, which celebrate some of life's moments that deserve a seriously good treat. Each illustration appears on a sleeve which wraps around the Lottie Shaw's keepsake treat tin, as well as on a collectable print inside the tin.

Our Snowman Tin depicts a cold and crisp Winter morning in Yorkshire. Featuring a very friendly Snowman and quintessentially British wildlife, all hand-drawn and painted by Eleanor at her studio in Yorkshire.

Seriously Good Mince Pies

Our luxury mince pies are deep filled with plump rich fruit, baked to our treasured family recipe and finished with an elegant pastry star. We spend a long time ensuring each mince pie has the perfect balance of luxury mincemeat to our seriously good pastry.

We are delighted that our mince pies featured in The Independent's Best Mince Pie Review, here is what they had to say:

"You could easily get away with pretending you made these yourself, which should not be surprising when you consider that the whole premise of this brand is baking like Grandma used to. Sadly, there's only four in the pack, but these mouth-watering pies are a decent size with thick and moreish pastry and a good dollop of tangy, mincemeat, so you shouldn't feel too short changed."

- Traditional Mince Pie, Box of Two £3
- Traditional Mince Pie, Box of Four £5
- Traditional Mince Pie, Box of Six £7

Yorkshire Sloe Gin Fruit Cake

£11.95

Our Sloe Gin Fruit Cake is based on a traditional recipe handed down three generations - using the finest fruit, soaked and plumped overnight in Yorkshire Sloe Gin for that sticky richness.

One of Autumn's pleasures is gathering the seasonal jewels of the hedgerow. Our friends at Sloemotion continue to follow the ancient tradition of picking sloe's after the first frost to harvest and make Sloe Gin which we soak our fruit in before baking to create a unique and delicious fruit cake.

Award Winning Yorkshire Parkin

Our award winning signature Yorkshire Parkin recipe has been in the family for over 100 years and we could not be more proud of it. This regional sticky ginger delicacy is made with flour, oatmeal, black treacle and syrup to create the authentic taste of Yorkshire.

One of the seriously good things about our Yorkshire Parkin is that the treacle in the recipe caramelises and hardens during baking, in keeping with tradition, before it leaves the bakery it is kept to rest to allow it to 'come again' - this is where the caramel softens giving each piece the perfect crumbly stickiness.
